

I Can Teach Others

The content of your portfolio should be unique, reflecting who you are and what you have learned during this module of study.

1. Initial letter or essay

Write about what you believe would be the best and worst part of teaching if you were a teacher. This assignment can be in the form of a letter, paragraph, poem, story, or song. (W1.1, W1.2, W1.3, W1.4, W1.5, W1.6, W1.6.1, W1.6.3, W2.1, W2.2, W4.1)

2. Required assignment

Activity 3.G: Those Who Can, Teach: Include your cooperating teacher's evaluation form and a personal reflection about your teaching assistantship experience. Include a short response to the following question: What do these assignments show about what you have learned or how you have grown? (W2.1, W2.3, W4.1)

3. Required module assessment

Include the module assessment assigned or approved by your teacher. Write a short response to the following question: What does this assignment show about what you have learned or how you have grown? (W1.1, W1.2, W1.3, W1.4, W1.5, W1.6, W1.6.1, W2.1, W2.2, W4.1)

4. The student's choice

Include an assignment of your choice from this module. Write a short response to the following questions: Why did you choose to include this piece? What does it show about what you have learned or how you have grown? (W2.1, W2.2, W4.1)

5. Closing remarks or summation

Write a summary of what you have learned from all of the activities in this module. You may write your remarks in any form including a paragraph, a poem, a journal entry, a letter to your teacher or a story. (W1.6, W1.6.1, W1.6.3, W2.1, W4.1)

6. Self-evaluation

The final component is a self-evaluation of your portfolio work for this module. Using the grading scale established by your teacher, rate your work, giving a brief explanation of why you gave yourself your grade or rating. You may want to include peer evaluations with ratings and comments by other students in the class after they have reviewed your portfolio work. You may use the self- and peer-evaluation rating forms that your teacher has. (W2.1, W2.2, W2.3, W4.1)
